AGM BENEFIT AUCTION

On Wednesday, October 26, art lovers came out to the Small Arms Inspection Building to support and celebrate the Art Gallery of Mississauga's 35th Anniversary. The evening was filled with excitement, from a live paint battle to live musical acts, a silent and live auction, and fantastic food; unforgettable memories were made.

Your support of the Art Gallery of Mississauga and the art community is amazing.

We especially want to acknowledge the financial support of our title sponsor, Lakeview Village and the following:

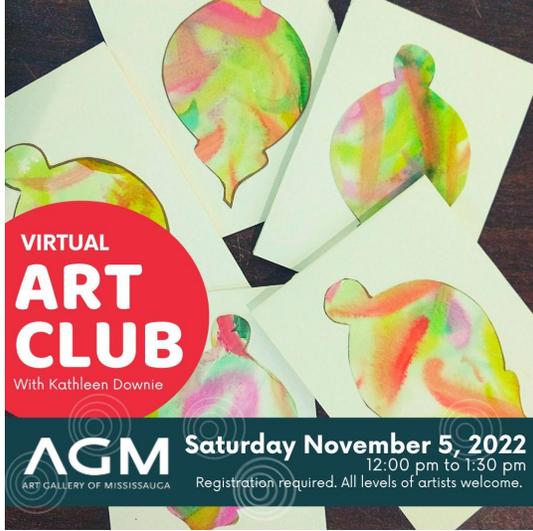

- The artists who donated their works
- Paint battle artists: Nisreen Askar, Ashley Beerdat, Richa Sharma, and Daniel Ramalho.
- Musical entertainers: Radhika Baskar, Grenville Pinto and Peter Mather
- Auctioneer Stephen Ranger
- Each and every guest who joined us

We also want to take this opportunity to thank all the staff and the volunteers for making this night possible. We truly cannot thank you enough. Cheers to 35 years!

GOOD NEWS STORY

PEEL SENIORS MAKE FABRIC COLLAGES

Peel Seniors have been busy. For over two years they have been gathering online to talk, share stories, learn about art, and engage in creative projects. The Art Gallery of Mississauga (AGM) has also partnered with the group to introduce new topics and projects. One of the fun projects we've presented was taught by art educator Kathleen Downie who taught the group about fabric collage. This is an easy and fun way to use scraps of fabric, buttons, threads, and ribbons to create a collaged image out of fabric. Some of the Seniors created beautiful scenes such as the one in the photo here, made by Grace, and others were more abstract images.

Thanks to Charitable Gaming, Community Good and RAMA Bingo in Mississauga for their funding to make this possible.
