FESTIVAL

Straddling the worlds of fashion photography and intimate portraiture, Jorian Charlton's work emphasizes the beauty and style of her subjects while exploring contemporary modes of Black representation. This expansive solo exhibition by the Mississauga-based artist is grounded in interpersonal connections, reflecting varied expressions of cultural and individual identity.

Curated by Shannon Anderson

Jorian Charlton: Between Us is a feature exhibition of the Scotiabank CONTACT Photography Festival and is on view at the AGM from April 25 to June 25, 2023.

Funding is provided by the City of Mississauga, the Ontario Arts Council, Canada Council for the Arts, Rama Gaming House and Charitable Gaming, Community Good.

MAY PROGRAMMING

Complementing the Art Gallery of Mississauga's exhibition Jorian Charlton: Between Us, the Art Gallery of Mississauga is offering a free portfolio review day for photo-based artists.

This opportunity allows participants to meet with three industry professionals, show their work and receive valuable feedback and personal guidance on their careers. If you would like feedback on work-in-progress or a completed body of work, advice on how to present work, or are looking to gain insight about exhibition opportunities, the AGM FREE Portfolio Review is an ideal opportunity for you.

Spaces are sold out; however, we have a waitlist open! As spaces become available, they will be given on a first-registered, first-offered basis.
